

Seattle Children's Theatre, Drama School

Position Title: Costume Intern

Description:

- This summer, Seattle Children's Theatre Drama School will produce a Summer Season of six productions in the 485-seat Charlotte Martin Theatre at Seattle Center, including two one-act plays, one full-length play, two one-act musicals and one full-length musical. These productions feature student actors directed by teaching artists, and are designed, built, and run by professional SCT staff working alongside student interns and volunteer assistants.
- We are seeking one costume intern for our 2019 Summer Season to learn about designing, pulling, measuring, building, altering and maintaining costumes for those shows. We do not do renderings or fully build Student Show costumes – we use stock and the actors' own clothes. This intern will work on all Summer Season shows, supervised and mentored by the Summer Season Costume Designer. The Costume Intern will have some run crew responsibilities.
- Training and Support: Throughout the summer, interns will meet regularly to share experiences and receive ongoing coaching and support from the staff.

Time commitment: Approximately June 24 - August 11; full-time. Hours will vary week by week; there will be evening and weekend hours.

Qualifications: The ideal candidate for this position will have a minimum of two years of college, stage costumes experience in a college or a professional environment, or demonstrate equivalent experience. Experience in costume shop stitching and construction required. We encourage those with less experience to apply as a volunteer assistant.

Stipend: $200/week, plus compensation for a bus or parking pass. Housing is not provided; we try to provide out-of-town interns with suitable housing leads.

Application Deadline: 11:59pm PST, February 12, 2019

To apply, please first complete our application survey. You will be prompted to provide your contact information, educational background, and the names, emails, and phone number of two references.
