

Seattle Children's Theatre

Position Title: Summer Season Props Assistant

Summer Season Description:

Seattle Children's Theatre Drama School will produce four Summer Season shows in the 485-seat Charlotte Martin Theatre at Seattle Center, including one full-length and one one-act musical. These productions feature student actors directed by teaching artists, and are designed, built and run by professional SCT staff, student interns and assistants supervised by staff.

Position Description:

We are seeking one volunteer Props Assistant for Summer Season 2018, to learn about designing, building, painting and organizing props for those shows. This assistant will work on all four Summer Season shows, supervised and mentored by our Student Shows Props Master and Technical Coordinator. The Props Assistant will also have run crew responsibilities.

Throughout the summer, interns and assistants will meet regularly to share experiences and receive ongoing coaching and support from the staff. SCT will help arrange credit for community service hours on request.

Time commitment: June 25- August 10 full-time. Hours will vary week by week; there will be evening and weekend hours.

Qualifications: Minimum 2 years of high school required, and one year of experience with technical theatre, including some props construction and run crew experience.

Application Deadline: 11:59pm PST on March 13, 2018

To apply, please complete our application survey. You will be prompted to provide your contact information, educational background, reasons for applying and the name, email, and phone number of one reference.

No drop-ins or physical mailings please.
