GRATITUDE REPORT

ABOUT SCT

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Seattle Children's Theatre is to provide children of all ages access to professional theatre, with a focus on new works and theatre education.

SCT COMMUNITY AGREEMENT

The agreements to the right are how we expect our staff, volunteers, and patrons to share the space of our theatres and building.

*“When I grow up
I want to perform on stage.”*

— CHILD WHO SAW
CARMELA FULL OF WISHES

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

SCT acknowledges that we are on the traditional land of the Coast Salish People, including the first people of Seattle, the Duwamish People past and present. We honor with gratitude this land and the Duwamish Tribe.

RESPECT ALL

Treat others with respect. Our differences are what make us beautiful. Celebrate each individual's unique identity and show this with your words and actions.

MODEL POSITIVE BEHAVIOR

Approach individuals, interactions, and stories with a curious mind and listening ear. Challenge yourself to be a learner, not a knower.

LEAD WITH CURIOSITY

Assume good intentions and understand mistakes happen, with others and ourselves. We all learn through failing, listening, and trying again.

CLAP HARD, CRY HARD

All feelings are welcome here. We invite you to be vulnerable. We are in the business of inspiring, educating, and entertaining; all of which can cause a number of feelings, from triumph to anguish.

BE AN UPSTANDER

Stand up for others, and use your voice to make our community stronger. Bullying will not be tolerated at SCT. If you see something, say something.

DEAR FRIENDS AND SUPPORTERS OF SCT

“The show must go on” has never been a more fitting adage. In a time of immense uncertainty, with disrupted and interrupted productions, Seattle Children’s Theatre (SCT) demonstrated resilience by returning with a daring 2022-2023 season. Our season opener was the 122nd World Premiere, The Boy Who Kissed the Sky, authored by our new Artistic Director, Idris Goodwin, and directed by the brilliant Tim Bond. This SCT-commissioned play paid tribute to the early life of the iconic Seattleite Jimi Hendrix and served as a source of artistic inspiration. Following its electrifying run in the Charlotte Martin Theatre, this remarkable addition to the Theatre for Young Audiences (TYA) canon saw two more productions in other major cities within just one year. It was a fitting inauguration to SCT’s recent season, designed to celebrate the rich cultural and artistic diversity of Seattle’s vibrant communities.

None of these achievements would have been possible without the steadfast support of our patrons, ticket purchasers, drama school investors, volunteers, and dedicated staff. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to our loyal season sponsors, ArtsFund, Microsoft, and The Shubert Foundation. Thanks to your generosity, we reached 130,000 individuals and provided over 60,000 free or heavily subsidized tickets to children throughout the Puget Sound region.

As we embark on our 49th Season, we remain committed to forging inclusive pathways and partnering with an array of communities. We treasure the narratives shared with us, as they help us uncover universal values within the specific experiences of our diverse audiences. We invite you all to join us in embracing our core values of “Clap Hard, Cry Hard.” Together, we can laugh big, cry big, ask big questions, and feel big feelings.

In 2025, Seattle Children’s Theatre will commemorate its 50th anniversary, and we eagerly anticipate your continued collaboration and support in the upcoming year and beyond. Thank you for being an integral part of our impact.

With gratitude,
Kevin, Idris, and Anh

HIGHLIGHTS FROM OUR 48TH SEASON

WORLD PREMIERE

SCT's 48th season opened with the world premiere of The Boy Who Kissed the Sky, written by SCT's Artistic Director, Idris Goodwin. This play draws inspiration from Jimi Hendrix's early life, featuring 1960s costumes and original music, portraying a young Black boy's journey as a budding guitarist.

CHANGES IN LEADERSHIP

This Season brought several exciting changes in SCT leadership. Idris Goodwin, award winning playwright and arts administrator, stepped into the Artistic Director role. Johamy Morales, nationally recognized Director and Educator, moved into the role of Associate Artistic Director. Tiffany Maltos, having held various roles in SCT's Education & Engagement Department since 2017, has now taken on the role of Director of Education & Engagement.

Fun Fact: Johamy Morales & Tiffany Maltos both served as SCT Education Interns early in their careers!

ARTISTIC RESIDENCIES

Last season, we were delighted to launch artist residencies with Brooklyn-based Broken Box Mime and solo performer Paige Hernandez, who presented Paige in Full and Havana Hop, two autobiographical works of self discovery.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM OUR 48TH SEASON

LEADER IN THEATRE FOR YOUNG AUDIENCES

Kicking off “Theatre for Young Audiences(TYA)/USA on Tour” in the Pacific Northwest, our event at SCT last October featured speakers on best practices in the creation of new work, as well as crafting partnerships and community-centered programming. Idris Goodwin currently serves as Board President of TYA and Tiffany Maltos, a long time SCT employee and arts educator, serves on the TYA Board.

WIDENING THE STAGE

Last season we presented and created works emblematic of SCT’s commitment to “widen the stage,” platforming all the stories, across the communities that define us as a nation.

We proudly showcased a bilingual (English & Spanish) adaptation of the beloved children’s story Carmela Full of Wishes, written by award-winning playwright Alvaro Saar Rios in collaboration with the Chicago Children’s Theatre.

SCT’s new production of The Wonderful Wizard of Oz, written by Jacqueline E. Lawton, featured a BIPOC cast and a youth ensemble as the flying monkeys, delivering life lessons of intelligence, tenderness, and courage through the journey of Dorothy and Toto.

BROADENING ACCESS - SCT FOR ALL

It was a special joy for SCT to experience our first full season since the pandemic. There is nothing quite like being in a theatre full of excited, fidgety young people who are waiting for a matinee performance to begin. When it does begin, it is pure magic as a hush falls over the entire space and the thrill of live theatre unfolds before their eyes. School kids and teachers laugh, cheer, and learn helpful tips for overcoming challenges.

Thank you to our Access funders – Safeco/Liberty Mutual, Moccasin Lake Foundation, Seattle Office of Arts& Culture (C.A.R.E. grant) and Anonymous.

FIELD TRIP SERIES

Last season SCT served 21,705 children and 563 educators, through our field trip series. Weekday matinees of our mainstage productions are open to all students. Busloads of young people, teachers, and chaperones travel from local schools, montessorios, and daycares to SCT for our weekday matinees. Matinee tickets can also be booked for those who are homeschoolers.

ONE&FIVE

Last season, SCT underwrote tickets and bus transportation for 3,180 first and fifth grade students from 30 Seattle Public Schools (SPS). We served more than three times our reach in fiscal year 2021-2022, which was 791 students.

We aim to offer this program at no cost to all 8,000 SPS first and fifth-grade students. A trip to SCT is many young people's first live arts experience, which often translates to greater learning in the classroom, as well as imagining possibilities for their future self.

SCT FOR ALL

The cost of a ticket should never be a barrier to attending an SCT production. Under SCT For All, we provide low cost and free tickets to young people and any family who expresses the need with our name your price program.

STUDENT ACCESS SERIES $9.62 AVERAGE TICKET PRICE

Our Student Access Series provides free or reduced price tickets for young people; last season 22,230 students and educators. Studies tell us (and we can see) that when a child under the age of eight experiences live theatre, their world is expanded. They gain empathy for others and greater interest in the world around them.

EDUCATION PROGRAMS & DRAMA SCHOOL

While SCT has a robust drama camp program for kiddos as young as 3 years old, our camps and classes are not just for “children.” Our teen and young adult programming provides access for youth to make their voice heard and launch their creative career. From The Actor’s Toolkit to Improv and Captivating Critters to Conflict Resolution, our drama school camps and programs offer unique out-of-school learning experiences that are fun, inspiring and provide new skills.

SCT ENGAGEMENT VISION

To build and support relationship-based partnerships with local service organizations that foster a symbiotic ecosystem between theatre and community.

WHY PARTNERSHIPS MATTER

95% of our Engagement programming in 2022-2023 was offered at no cost to the community. In an effort to bring the magic of SCT to every child in Seattle and the surrounding areas, the Education & Engagement department strives to connect with organizations all over the city in hopes to not only extend our reach a little further each year, but to braid theatre with exciting interdisciplinary subjects like history, art, world cultures, and more!

A LEGACY OF SIGNIFICANT IMPACT – MARILYN DILLARD & ADRIENNE COONS

SCT FOUNDATION
TOTAL $5,900,000

Marilyn’s daughter, Adrienne Coons died tragically in 1984, but during her short life, she found inspiration from SCT productions and Drama School. Adrienne’s determination and dedication were an inspiration for the SCT faculty and students alike. Todd Jefferson Moore, a local Actor and Director, who was one Adrienne’s SCT drama teachers said: “Adrienne was a very gifted child. She was tremendous. Stole the show.”

The Adrienne Coons Memorial Fund was established at The Seattle Foundation in 1985 with support from PONCHO, Marilyn Dillard (Coons), Jim Coons and other generous donors to provide SCT drama school scholarships for those who otherwise would not be able to participate. The fund has provided school scholarships for the past 38 years. In the Spring of 2022, the Memorial Fund was dissolved at the Seattle Foundation and the proceeds of $347,000 were given to SCT. The bulk of this gift, $250,000 has been placed in an endowment to provide annual Drama School Scholarships in perpetuity. The remainder has supported SCT facility upgrades to Studios A & B, where most students take their first drama classes.

“It’s a thrill to know that the opportunity (drama school scholarships) makes kids happy and provides them with life changing experiences...SCT is a place unlike any other; they are so welcoming and they cherish children.”

– Marilyn Dillard, SCT newsletter 1998-99

LEAVING A LEGACY TO SCT

By designating SCT as a beneficiary to receive gifts through IRAs, retirement plans, or life insurance policies, you are investing in the dynamic future of our region. Making a planned gift can become a significant method to support SCT that doesn’t impact your current financial situation. You may also include SCT as a beneficiary in your will or trust to receive a gift of any size from your assets.
